NOTES:

- The dates for Islamic Holidays are determined after the sighting of the moon. Thus, the actual dates may not coincide with the dates in this calendar. In the event of loss of teaching days due to unscheduled closings, the teaching Trimester(s) may be extended into the study and examination period and on weekends/evenings.
- EAHM will officially announce any closure on a religious and/or public holiday to the students once the official confirmation has been received either from Jumeirah Group or the Ministry of Education (higher education section) via email and/or posted on the noticeboard/timetable. If there are any scheduled classes that cannot be delivered due to a religious holiday, the classes may be re-scheduled accordingly.
